

The Copa Aruba Tennis Tournament Begins at the Aruba Racquet Club

Tennis Players from Venezuela and as far as Argentina have traveled to Aruba to compete in the 2005 Aruba Cup, which began official matches at the Aruba Racquet Club at 4 pm today. On Monday evening the teams gathered for a festive opening of the tournament on the terrace of the Racquet Club hosted by Managing Director and Tournament Organizer Humphrey Hose.

Aruban tennis players will compete over the next four days against teams from Venezuela and Brazil in a series of singles, doubles, and mixed doubles competitions to see who takes home the trophies that will be awarded at the farewell party on Friday, October 14. It should be an exciting week of tennis action, culminating in the semi-finals and finals on Friday afternoon. Good luck to the Aruba team, we are sure you will make us proud!
